The workshop also highlighted the importance of understanding gender inequalities and the role of education in shaping individuals' lives.

Online workshop on gender sensitization

OUR CORRESPONDENT

SIVASAGAR, Dec 11: Gender sensitization can go a long way in bringing the desirable changes in the overall development of the nation as well as across the globe. In keeping with such pressing concerns, Gargaon College organized an online workshop on issues related to gender sensitization on Saturday.

The workshop, inaugurated by Principal of Gargaon College and noted academicians, Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta, was held with the objective of creating gender sensitization by understanding the social and cultural construction of gender, the laws and policies required towards achieving gender equality with an integrated and interdisciplinary approach. The programme was organized by Women Cell (GCTU), in association with IQAC and Department of Chemistry, Gargaon College. It was coordinated by Dr. Pakiza Begam, Assistant Secretary, Women Cell (GCTU), Gargaon College. Primarily

Langhassa, Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology and Upama Salkia, Guest Lecturer, Department of Political Science, Gargaon College were the resource persons. The first speaker gave a talk on the topic 'Women: A Key Differentiator towards Gender Equality' where she discussed about gender equality and equality, gender roles and identity, gender policies and challenges in achieving gender equality. She explained how gender sensitization plays a very significant role in achieving gender equality, how it plays a role in dismantling the systemic gender biases and sexism. She further added that evaluation of all public service policies, programmes and activities can be done so that the gender sensitive public service becomes effective in planning implementation and monitoring of reforms. The second speaker's talk was on 'Laws and Practicalities: Understanding Women Rights in India'. She emphasized the constitutional right regarding women and focus on some recent examples (some amendments of Acts regarding women in India). She further discussed various schemes of Assam Government which have been adopted for the protection and promotion of women's rights. She also pointed out that on certain grounds, the scenario was different, which could be understood from recent reports of increasing crime against women in India. The speaker said the change people's mindset was the changing transformatio from the rights to protection and from discrimination to dignity and respect.

Obituary

Purna Kanta Boruah
Department of Physics

Purna Kanta Boruah, a former vice principal and head of Physics Department of Gargaon College, passed away on May 4, 2023 at the age of 74. He was a dedicated teacher, a visionary leader and a humble person who touched the lives of many students and colleagues.

Born on January 1, 1949, he completed his B.Sc. from Sibsagar College and M.Sc. from Gauhati University. He joined Gargaon College as a lecturer in physics on September 3, 1973 and served the institution for 35 years until his retirement on December 31, 2008. During his tenure, he organized the first state level conference on "Information Technology, Internet and its Prospects" on October 14, 1999, which was a milestone in the history of Gargaon College also he was the IQAC coordinator of Gargaon College during the first NAAC assessment in 2004. He took charge as the vice principal of Gargaon College on December 1, 2006 and was instrumental in bringing many academic and infrastructural developments to the college.

He was a kind hearted, hard-working and friendly person, he never hesitated to lend a hand to anyone who needed and earned the respect of everyone. His passion for teaching and research motivated many students to pursue higher studies and careers in physics. He also engaged in many social activities outside the college and was an active member of various organizations.
