National Cadet Corps (NCC)

One of the major strategic plans of Gargaon College was to implement the programme of the National Cadet Corps (NCC) so as to guide the students to develop “character, comradeship, discipline, a secular outlook, the spirit of adventure and ideals of selfless service”. The College has successfully implemented this strategic plan by introducing NCC in the college on October 8, 2021. Both the 11 Assam Girls Coy (I) NCC and the 49 Assam Naval NCC were jointly raised on the same day in the raising ceremony in presence of Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta, Principal, Gargaon College, Dr. Rina Handique, Vice Principal, Gargaon College and chief-guests Col. Ravideep Singh Chhabda, Commanding Officer, 11 Assam Girls (I) Coy NCC and Lt. Commander Rajesh Bhujel, Commanding Officer, 49 Assam Naval Unit and the PI staff. More than 14 activities were successfully conducted under the banner of NCC during the academic year of 2021-2022.

NCC RAISING CEREMONY AT GARGAON COLLEGE

Dated: 8th October, 2021

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vhA6sVXbnrg>

On 8th October, 2021, NCC raising ceremony was successfully completed at our Gargaon College premises. Both the 11 Assam Girls Coy (I) NCC and 49 Assam Naval NCC was jointly raised on the same day. The programme was graced by Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta, Principal, Gargaon College, Dr. Rina Handique, Vice Principal, Gargaon College and our chief-guests Col. Ravideep Singh Chhabda, Commanding Officer, 11 Assam Girls (I) Coy NCC and Lt. Commander Rajesh Bhujel, Commanding Officer, 49 Assam Naval Unit and the PI staffs. Our guests were felicitated with a Traditional Gamusa and list of journals and books published by our College.

The raising ceremony started with a highly relevant and enlightening speech delivered by the Principal of our College, Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta. He delivered a stimulating speech where he focused on the importance of NCC and its impact on an individual as a whole. The programme culminated with a very inspiring and provoking speech by our guest, Col. Ravideep Singh Chhabda, Commanding Officer 11 Assam Girls (I) Coy NCC. In his deliberation, he encouraged the students to join the NCC and also illuminated how NCC plays a role in shaping them into dynamic and responsible citizens of the country. This was followed by an oration by Lt. Commander Rajesh Bhujel, Commanding Officer, 49 Assam Naval Unit. He enlightened how the NCC certificate holders have an add-on advantage during the selection process of interviews including both in defence and non-defence services.

The programme was coordinated and hosted jointly by CTO Dr. Raktim Patar and CTO Ms. Pimily Langthasa. Students, teaching and non-teaching staff participated and attended the ceremony. The event concluded with the vote of thanks offered by CTO Pimily Langthasa followed by National Anthem.

NCC day is celebrated every year on the fourth Sunday in the month of November. Likewise, the 73rd NCC day was celebrated on 28th November, 2021 at our college premises. Both the 11 Assam Girls Coy (I) NCC and 49 Assam Naval Unit jointly celebrated the NCC day. The celebration of the programme started with various events like campus cleanliness drive, tree plantation and followed by the cultural programme. All the cadets actively participated with the motto of “Say no to plastic” and aimed to make plastic free campus. Followed by the plantation at CCK Girls Hostel, College garden and playground. After the outdoor activities, the cultural programme was initiated with live National Anthem flute performance.

The programme was graced by Dr. Dimbeswar Das, Assistant Professor; Dr. Pakiza Begum, Assistant Professor and Dr. Rashmi Dutta Assistant Professor of Gargaon College. Our guests were felicitated with a Traditional fulam Gamusa. Our guests delivered a speech on the importance of NCC and also added how to take up the NCC parallelly with the degree courses. Senior Cadet Karishma Devi gave an overview on NCC.

The programme was coordinated by CTO Pimily Langthasa, 11 Assam Girls (I) Coy NCC, CTO Dr Raktim Patar, 49 Assam Naval Unit. The programme was hosted jointly by Cadet Papori Hatimuria, and Cadet Vanella Hangle from 11 Assam Girls (I) COY NCC and 49 Assam Naval Unit respectively. Students and faculty members from different departments participated and attend the programme. The event concluded with the vote of thanks offered followed by the NCC Song.

WORLD WATER DAY

Dated : 22nd March, 2022

In tune with the theme of this year “Groundwater: Making the Invisible Visible,” 11 Assam Girls Coy (I) NCC, Gargaon College and IQAC of the college celebrated World Water Day on the 22nd March, 2022 by organizing a special awareness programme at Sankardev Sishu Niketan School, Simaluguri. The programme was presided by the Pradhan Acharya of the school, Shri Rajani Borgohain and Pimily Langthasa, the Programme Coordinator and CTO of 11 Assam Girls Coy (I) NCC, Gargaon College. The audience comprised of 11 Assam Girls Coy (I) NCC, Gargaon College, guardians of the school students and teaching as well non-teaching staff of the school.

The program started with a highly relevant speech delivered by the Pradhan Acharya of Sankardev Sishu Niketan School, who tried to raise awareness among the community to focus and achieve sustainability of water and also encouraged them to protect water from over exploitation.

The resource person, Dr. Pakiza Begum, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry, Gargaon College delivered a stimulating speech where she focused on the importance of groundwater, an invisible resource and its impact which is visible everywhere. She encouraged the audience to reuse and recycle water and discussed several simple ways of reusing water at the community level. The event concluded with the vote of thanks offered by CTO Pimily Langthasa.
