Brief report of the program

The Department of Commerce at Gargaon College observed Anti-Ragging Day on the 12th August 2023 to raise awareness about the importance of preventing ragging and fostering a safe and respectful learning environment. As part of the observance, a movie was screened at the ICT Lab to educate students about the negative consequences of ragging. The observance of Anti-Ragging Day commenced at 1 pm with an opening address by the faculty members of the Department of Commerce. The significance of creating a campus culture free from any form of harassment or intimidation was emphasized. The event aimed to instill a sense of responsibility and mutual respect among students, encouraging them to uphold the values of dignity and tolerance. A carefully selected movie focusing on the theme of ragging and its detrimental effects on individuals and communities was showcased at the ICT Lab. The movie depicted real-life incidents and highlighted the psychological, emotional, and physical trauma experienced by victims of ragging. Through compelling storytelling, it aimed to evoke empathy and sensitivity among viewers, urging them to take a stand against such misconduct.
