Report of the Parent-Teacher Meeting

About the program

A Parent-teacher meeting was organized by the Department of Education, Gargaon College on 29/2/24. A Parent-teacher meeting is an integral part of the education system. This is a meeting between teachers and parents to talk about students' progress and development. A total of 40 parents participated in the meeting. Different issues such as the academic progress and growth of students based on classroom observation, testing data, assessments, and assignments were discussed. Students' performance in individual subjects, students' discipline in classrooms were also discussed. Parents were happy with the way that the department was taking care of the students' academic progress. Internal Assessment marks were discussed with the parents. The Head of the Department, Dr. Bidyananda Borkakoty discussed the academic calendar and also stressed that if parents and students had any difficulty, they could contact the faculty and the department anytime.
