Name of the Programme: National Unity Week

Organizers: NSS Unit and IQAC, Gargaon College.

No. of Participants: All students, teaching and non-teaching staff of the college

Significance of the Programme

The National Unity Day or Rashtriya Ekta Diwas is celebrated every year on October 31 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, India's first Home Minister, who played an important role in persuading many princely states to join the Union of India.

The main objective of the celebration is to uplift the nation's unity and spread awareness about Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's contribution to Indian history.

About the Programme

The National Service Scheme Unit and Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Gargaon College celebrated 'National Unity Week' from 25th to 31st October in conjunction with the birth anniversary of Iron Man Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. As part of the nationwide celebrations, a throng of activities were organized to pay tribute to Sardar Vallababhai Patel, an icon for National Unity of India. On the first day of this celebration, a webinar was organised on relevance of national unity, integrity and solidarity.

The webinar was inaugurated by the eminent author, speaker and Principal of Gargaon College, Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta. Dr. Mahanta highlighted how national unity can be fostered in the society. The webinar was moderated by Dr. Saheen Sehnaz Begum. Yuvaraj Gogoi, Assistant Professor of the Department of Political Science, as the resource person of the webinar, reflected on the necessity of national unity and challenges to it. Gogoi stated that the respect for difference can go long way in the creation of cohesion and national unity among the masses.

The second day programme of 'National Unity Week' was inaugurated by Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta , Principal of the College . Dr. Mahanta spoke about the veritable contribution of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel in making India an independent country and to lay a foundation of a unified country fused with oneness. The webinar was moderated by Dr. Rimjim Borah, Programme Officer of NSS Unit, Gargaon College. Dr.NijaraSaikia, Assistant Professor, Department of Philosophy, Panigaon OPD College Lakhimpur, as resource person of the webinar delivered a speech on 'the Relevance of National Unity and Solidarity: Philosophical Perspective'. Dr.Saikia focused on the role and relevance of philosophy in the coordination of national unity and solidarity of India and role of NSS volunteers by mentioning the philosophical views of Western philosophers like Plato and Indian Philosophers Swami Vivekananda, Rishi Aurobindo and other philosophers across the country.

The closing ceremony of the 'National Unity Week' started with a 'Pledge Taking Ceremony' on Ekta that embarked the spirit of unity among teaching and non-teaching staffs, NSS volunteers and the fellow students. After that, under the supervision of Dr. Rimjim Borah, the NSS Unit organised the 'Run for Unity' to pay tribute to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, the first Deputy Prime Minister of independent India and to promote his ideals. In the "Run for Unity" all volunteers of NSS Unit Gargaon College enthusiastically participated in a short rally marathon around the college premises and nearby areas to evoke the spirit of integrity and unity. Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta, Principal of the College thanked all the participants for completing the week-long programme in an enthusiastic way.
